ATTACKS ON THE MONARCHY NOW MADE IN THE OPEN.

Republican Party Gains New Followers and Starts an Aggressive Campaign -Discontent Spreading Among Working Classes and the Army and Navy

Special Cuble Despatch to THE SUN London, Aug. 22. - The Times publishes a long, closely reasoned article from Madrid discussing the political situation and the army of Spain, from which it is evident that the writer expects a revolution in that country at no very distant date.

It must be admitted that the actual events and conditions described in this letter justify the most serious apprehension. All classes of the people, peasants, bourgeoisie and artisans, have lost respect for the Government, and owing to a variety of causes, notably the failure of the most recent speculations, are suffering from extreme economic depression.

The Republican party, taking advantage of the spirit of discontent which is pervading the civil, milltary and naval classes, has drawn them into its movement, and the correspondent states that, showing audacity with which in modern Europe there is nothing to compare, the forces of the revolution, from Bilbao to Jerez and from Cadiz to Barcelona, are forming up in the open. Even Madrid is becoming a citadel of the revolutionary propaganda and intrigue. The Spanish Socialist party, which has heretofore been a bitter enemy of the Republican party, has at a general assembly voted to ally its forces with the Republicans in the coming elections.

The republican spirit may be judged from the tone of a circular sent on Aug. 2 throughout the county by Señor Salmeron, the head of the Republican party. It calls on his partisans to organize meetings "to criticise, censure and attack the monarchical régime for showing its incompatibility with the national spirit and the craving for justice." "Moreover," the circular continues, "let the causes of our great national misfortunes be bitterly empha-The circular says that while the party has profound love for the fatherland, it feels for the army and navy, which is flesh of its flesh, over whose prestige the monarchy neither can nor will stand guard.

For the third time an attempt to inaugu rate a general strike has failed, but the progress of the organization of unions considerable. A crisis in the house building trade alone has thrown more than 20,000 workmen into the streets of Madrid.

The agitation in favor of a general strike was merely the result of the economic crisis which is general throughout Spain. In the years 1899-1900 the industrial development in the country was extraordinary. Companies representing 800,000,general boom in business, but now the crash has come. The sugar refineries are manœuvring to form a trust. Financial failures at Bilbao have been followed by those in Santander, the Asturias, northern Galicia and Andalusia. Meanwhile the poorer classes are paying burdensome taxes and the discontent is spreading.

One example will show how from time to time it is given vent. At Alcalla del Valle, in the Province of Cadiz, the peasants met to discuss the question of a strike. The gendarmes who appeared, and whose commander ordered the meeting to dissolve, were received with a volley of stones, the women particularly distinguishing themselves in the attack. The peasants then fired on the gendarmes, and one of the latter was killed. They descended in bands to the town, broke open the doors of houses and shops, carried off all weapons they could find, sacked private houses and the town hall, and to cries of "Death to tyrants!" burned in the public square the archives of the municipality.

After a period of singular apathy and the presence of what the writer of the article describes as almost revolutionary agitation. the Villaverde Government suddenly, at of violent repression. Republican meetings have been dissolved and authorization for others refused. A dozen newspapers have been prosecuted, all without much visible result. Indeed, one organ, which is friendly to the present Cabinet, warns the Government that its sudden outburst of energy to prevent at all costs the Repub lican propaganda is not only impolitic but illegal at present. Moreover, the principle of authority which is being upheld at this late day by the Government meets with less and less support from its natural sympathizers, namely, the upper grade officers of the army and navy.

"One hundred thousand anæmic soldiers," says the writer, "fresh from honors In Philippine and Cuban warfare and still unpaid are now dragging out a miserable existence in the large towns, spreading amid the lower classes who are already living from hand to mouth, a discontent which finds its counterpart in the brooding and indignation of the wounded amour propre of the officers. Grafted upon the chargrin and discontent which has been prevailing in the army and navy since the American war there is now a new grievance The army and navy consider themselves neglected. Señor Villaverde, whose one idea is financial retrenchment, has heretofore not shown the slightest sense of th existence of this feeling, while the Republicans are clearly alive to it, as they understand that now that the colonies are closed to military activity another field must be discovered for it. Indeed, the army's only champions are the Republicans."

Vice-Admiral Cervera, who commanded the Spanish fleet at Santiago, and who is the head of the navy general staff, has already offered his resignation. Gen. Martittegui, the Minister of War, may at any moment, in consequence of the policy of Senor Villaverde, also leave the Cabinet The army, in short, is deprived of what i considers its rightful place in the Spanish Constitution and intends to claim its due threatening to take it forcibly if necessary

The real sentiment of the army was recently openly voiced by La Correspondencia Militar. It is one of the ables newspapers in Spain, and when it declares in a leading article that "it is at times necessary and preferable to employ the force of force rather than the force of reason." and outdoes Señor Salmeron in virulence against the present régime, it must be regarded as a grave indication of the present situation. The writer of the article says the Palace people are keenly alive to the dangers of the situation and have given Gen. Weyler to understand that perhaps by December he may be asked to form a frankly Liberal, or even a Radical Ministry, with Senor Canalejas as the guarantee of progress. He adds that the addition of Senor Montero Rios to these two is being contemplated. Such a triumvirate, h says, would make a serious effort to deal with the situation. Perhaps so, but they will have to do some violent things to satisfy their followers, and judging from the condition of things in Spain shown by the article itself and the intelligence coming from time to time from that distressed

REVOLT PREDICTED IN SPAIN. country, it is by no means certain that they can do them without establishing for a time a military despotism in order to prevent the discontented people from break ing up the unity of a state which was constructed from little kingdoms that have never been thoroughly cemented.

DRIVING OUT MOSQUITOES. Measures Taken in the Soudan Prove Very Effective.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN. LONDON, Aug. 22.-Major Penton, the principal medical officer of the Soudan, gives an interesting report of the results of Ross's measures for the prevention of malaria. Ismailia is now practically free of mosquitoes and nets may almost be dispensed with.

Two swamps northeast of the town and others on the south have been filled up with sand, while a third large marsh the north has been well drained. Workmen are still filling up the pools and mowing the coarse undergrowth. At first they were worried in the evenings by the swarms of mosquitoes, but lately they have seen scarcely any.

Statistics in regard to the health of Ismailia show that from Jan. 1 to June 30, 1903, was the healthiest period on record. There were only three cases of malaria in the hospitals, as compared with 52 in the corresponding period of 1902. While throughout Ismailia there were 569 cases from Jan. 1 to May 30, 1902, the average for the same period in 1903 was only 72. Many of these cases were probably relapses from previous cases. Major Penton suggests that when the present operations against mosquitoes are completed malarial fever will practically have disappeared.

"PARSIFAL" SINGERS BLUFF. Ask Conried to Release Them, but Don't Mean It.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN. BERLIN, Aug. 22.-The Munich correspondent of the Morgen Post says the artists engaged by Heinrich Conried for the production of "Parsifal" at the Metropolitan Opera House in New York have decided. in deference to the wishes of Frau Wagner, to ask Mr. Conried to release them. They will decline to act in the performances if Frau Wagner has the means of preventing the production, but otherwise they will consider it their duty to abide by their contracts with Mr. Conried and cooperate with him in the interest of a dignified production of "Parsifal" on the New York

The Vienna correspondent of THE SUN, who has been investigating the matter, says that a request for their relief was merely a manœuvre on the part of Van Rooy, Burgstaller and Ternina in order to preserve their position with Frau Wagner and so have no trouble later in performing at Bayreuth. Mr. Conried has contracts in his possession which the artists accepted with the full knowledge that 000 pesetas were formed, and there was a Frau Wagner would object, so they made a sham request to be released knowing well that Mr. Conried would not rescind the contracts under any circumstances.

FAT WELL AND BE GREAT. America's Good Appetite Puts It at the Head of Nations.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN London, Aug. 22.-A newspaper publishes statistics with a view of showing that peoples with large appetites become the chief nations of the world and the nature of the food eaten has a striking relation to the national character. Thus, comparing the daily expenditure per head with the exports of a country, it is found that people who eat most work most, as this table shows The figures in the first column are pence and in the second pounds sterling:

Exp. of Food per Head per Day. Annual Exports. 299,000,000 280,000,000 221,000,000 166,000,000 84,000,000

ATTACKS THE PASTEUR SYSTEM. Italian Doctor Says Deaths From Hydrophobla Are Becoming More Frequent.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN. MILAN, Aug. 22.-There have been fou deaths at Novara, in Piedmont, as the results of bites of a mad dog. This has aroused keen discussion as to the merits of the Pasteur system. It is stated that of the ten persons who were bitten by this dog four who were treated by the Pasteur system died. The papers demand an inquiry into the cases, which were handled at the Pasteur institutions in Italy. Dr. Duata, professor of hygiene at the Perugia University, has printed a violent article attacking the Pasteur system. He declares that deaths from hydrophobia were rarer before its adoption. The yearly average between 1875 and 1884 in France was 60, and in Italy 65. Since its adoption here Italy's average has risen to 85. About 3,000 patients are being treated every year.

TURKS MAKE LITTLE HEADWAY

MACEDONIAN INSURGENTS KEEP UP AN ACTIVE CAMPAIGN.

Powers Will Support Russia and Austria in Demanding Reforms-France May Send Fleet to Turkish Waters-Japan Not to Take Advantage of the Situation

Special Cable Despatches to THE SUN. LONDON, Aug. 22.—It is now beyond question that the "general rising" promised in Macedonia has occurred, but as vet neither side has secured much advantage. The Turks have increased their forces to 150,000, while the insurgents have only 80,000 in actual motion. The Turks, however, are hampered by defects in their commissariat which sometimes involve practical starvation owing to the scattered position of their foes, and it is also reported that there is lack of discipline among the Ottomar troops. The insurgents fight well. There is as yet no serious apprehension that the trouble will not be successfully localized.

The Cologne Gazette to-day printed a telegram from Vienna, which, so far, must be taken as expressing the general opinion. It says that the Balkan question there is viewed with equanimity. Russia, in making a naval demonstration, contemplated no further action. The other Powers show no inclination to interfere with the Austro-Russian policy. Russia will continue to exercise strong pressure on Bulgaria. As a consequence of this policy, the cavalry manœuvres in southern Bulgaria, which should have commenced to-day, were suddenly countermanded.

Baron Hayashi, the Japanese Minister to Great Britain, in an outspoken interview in the early part of the week, disclaimed emphatically in behalf of his Government that there was any idea of war with Russia. He added that there was an illusion in regard to the Balkan situation. Japan, he said, would not take advantage of Russia's present difficulties with Turkey to press her withdrawal from Manchuria

Thus far there seems no danger that the great Powers will be drawn into war, although doubtless there must yet be what the Spectator calls a "welter of blood and flame" in Macedonia for some time before peace is restored to Turkey's unhappy subjects.

The Macedonian insurgents have completely burned Vasilika, in eastern Adrianople, as well as twelve other villages nearby. The Turkish officials were captured and conveyed across the frontier into Bulgaria, where the authorities imprisoned their

Yaclding Cap on an Ocean Liner. WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.-Prof. Robert T Hill of the Geological Survey has written a letter from the Waldorf-Astoria to a newspaper in this city, giving details of his experience with an alleged card sharp aboard the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse, in which

In the various accounts published I have been made to appear as a gambler, a wealthy man, a heavy loser, &c., and even one paper published a story from the thief, alleging that I played in a poker game with him and kicked because I lost.

The facts are merely these: That I was buncoed by a grafter in a yachting cap, herding in a flock of gentlemen, a crook who intercepted me, bamboozled me and swindled me to a finish. I did not lose $400 nor a tenth of it, but I was buncoed in the saloon of a first-class steamer, upon which there was no protection, by a crook who had been working it trip after trip. I played no poker, I sought no game, but was laid for and caught.
